AN ACT

For the relief of William R. Jackson.

June 26, 1953
[S. 712]

William R. Jackson.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to William R. Jackson, administrator of the estate of W. C. Jackson, deceased, the sum of $11,500 plus interest on such sum at the rate of 4 per centum per annum from February 24, 1943, to the date of payment, representing the amount of damages found by the United States Court of Claims (Congressional Numbered 17859, decided April 8, 1952, in response to S. Res. 137, Eighty-first Congress), to have resulted from the unlawful taking by the Government of the deceased's fishing grounds and the deprivation by the Government of the deceased's use of his fishing nets in the vicinity of Spesutie Island, Maryland: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
